

A Winter Celebration

Thank you for auditioning!

Congratulations to all who auditioned. Unfortunately, we can't take all songs for the concert, so if your name is not listed, it's probably because of one of these reasons, and we can chat next week:

- Someone else auditioned with the same song.
- The song was not memorized.
- The song was sung well but there was no performance.
- I didn't think it was right for your voice or it was pitchy.
- Your song was amazing, but I have limited spots and need to balance the show.
- You do not sing out in class, and no matter how amazing you sounded, I value authenticity.

If your name is listed below, please pay attention to the following dates:

This Week – Please see me to know what needs to be improved or changed before our first rehearsal.

Friday, November 17 – This is the day I need an email from you containing a PDF of the sheet music for your song in the correct key, as well as a YouTube link to your song that I can pass along to the band. You can find sheet music at musicnotes.com or sheetmusicplus.com and it will cost around $5.00. You just need the melody, lyrics, piano part, and guitar chords. If you have any questions, please see Mr. Blaney asap so he can help you get the correct music or find the key that you need. Failure to meet this deadline may result in your song being cut from the concert.

Tuesday, November 29 – Run your song with Mr. Blaney during OH or Lunch. Sign up on the board in the Choir Room.

Wednesday, December 6 – Dress Rehearsal from 4:00 – 5:00 PM.

Thursday December 7th and Friday December 8th – Performances. You must be able to sing at both performances.
